Stations love them...

"Our listeners started calling the show and participating in contests from day one. Since then we have received nothing but praise from the WOLZ audience. When we bring the guys from FB&HW into our market, response is HUGE - and these guys work their butts off, shaking hands, kissing babies, taking pictures, etc.!" -Kevan Kavanaugh, President & General Manager Mid-West Family Broadcasting

"Free Beer and Hot Wings is a great show. It is popular with our listeners and our advertisers. The guys are great about visiting the market and providing local support when necessary. I am a fan." -Bill Saurer, CEO Millenium Media
