THE CREATORS

-BUILT FOR SPORTS RADIO BY RADIO EXPERTS-

About Nate Lundy:

Nate Lundy has spent 19 years in talk radio, working everything from production and imaging to Program Director. Known to many as "Doogie Howser," Nate's programming career started early and has taken him to Portland, Charleston, Memphis, San Antonio and Orlando. Combining his passion for imaging and production with his understanding of the talk format, Nate's career accelerated quickly. He was twice named by Radio Ink as one of the "Top 50 Program Directors in America." He is a diehard football fan, both college and pro, and admits that owning four televisions still isn't enough to watch all the sports he enjoys.

About Gabe Hobbs:

Gabe is a 35-year radio veteran who has specialized in the news, talk and sports formats for the past 20 years. From 1998 through 2008 Gabe was responsible for the programming oversight of Clear Channel's 275 news, talk and sports formatted stations. As part of his overall responsibilities he also served as the in-house consultant for Premiere Radio Networks which had him involved with shows such as the Rush Limbaugh Program, the Glenn Beck Show, Trumped with Donald Trump, Costas on the Radio with Bob Costas, the Sean Hannity Show, the Dr. Laura Program and Jason Lewis. Gabe also worked on the launch of Fox Sports Radio in 2000 and remained an advisor to the network for eight years.

Gabe has been nominated by his peers eight times and voted by his peers four times as the News/Talk Executive of the Year. These awards are presented annually by Radio and Records Magazine. Radio Ink Magazine named Gabe one of the top 10 corporate radio programmers in America. He also served on the Associated Press Board of Advisors from 2000 until 2008.
