ABOUT THE SHOW

The TJ Show has become one of radio's fastest-growing syndicated programs by delivering authentic personalities, real conversations, and genuine listener relationships.

The TJ Show is hosted by former Z100 New York, Elvis Duran Show co-host TJ Taormina.

"We want to be a fun show that mom and dad can listen to in the front seat and their kids want to listen to in the back seat. We work to create something that makes multiple generations choose radio on their car ride." — TJ TAORMINA

About TJ

The TJ SHOW

TJ was the kid who walked to school with his headphones plugged into his radio. Having discovered morning talk shows as a 13-year-old while growing up in Hillsdale, NJ, he became hooked. In high school, he started working in radio as a volunteer.

He held many positions at his first official radio job including answering phones, producing, and eventually becoming a co-host on Elvis Duran's nationally syndicated radio show.

TJ began hosting his own morning radio show (The TJ Show) in Boston in early 2013. Now The TJ Show is heard daily on over 125 great radio stations everywhere. TJ is married to his wife, Jess, and they have two dogs named Frankie and Luna.
