PopCrush Nights Weeknights hosted by Donny Meacham

“Popcrush is leading the way for the future of radio and I am honored and excited to be a part of it.”

Donny Meacham is a Southern boy living in a Hollywood world! He has a long career in radio, TV, podcast, and more. His music obsession runs across all genres from Pop, Country, Alt, and Rap. His passion is telling people’s stories with humor, heart, and a little sass. He also is a “dating expert,” where he uses a little tough love to help you love yourself and others. In his downtime, he is bingeing TV shows and obsessively reapplying chapstick.

PopCrush Nights Weekends with Lauren Snapp

Listeners know me as the “queen of a good time.” I like to pack a punch with fast music facts, oversharing my life, and telling mediocre dad jokes. I love to laugh and am obsessed with meeting new people, making real friendships, and building lasting connections. When not chasing down the latest in trending pop culture news, listening to new music, or keeping my finger on the pulse of the latest social media crazes, I am sing-speaking to my dogs, chasing waterfalls, or attempting a makeup or fashion tutorial. I am bottom-heavy, but don’t let that fool you. I’m athletic and always have a dance and playlist prepared. Everywhere I go, you will find me “dropping it like it’s hot” – even in the produce aisle at the grocery store. Sorry, not sorry for my HYPE. Let’s connect, laugh, and rally together! Come say hi and join the party!
