SHOW BENCHMARKS

Street Bits:
Who's Got The Warrant

Ian heads out onto the street and approaches people that look like they may have a warrant out for their arrest; we - along with help from the listeners - try to figure out which it is.

Rap It Up

Everyone is a freestyle rapper after a few drinks. Ian asks people to drop their best bars and...while we haven't discovered the next rap superstar just yet....we're sure it's just a matter of time.

Dirty Laundry

We approach total strangers in laundromats and ask them to share with us a secret, aka their dirty laundry, that they've never told anyone before. Some of the revelations are shocking and hilarious.

Regular Features:

The Karen Chronicles

Scathing reviews of mostly 5-star establishments. We've all met that Karen (or Darren for dudes) that NOTHING is good enough for. The complaints are hilarious and pathetic all at the same time.

Missed Connection Inspection

We troll the depths of Craigslist for the weirdest posts of people yearning for love. Every single week we are blown away by people shooting their shot in the most absurd ways.

Cover Your Ears

Popular songs, but you'd never recognize them. These covers that people perform and upload to the internet are truly unique gems. Many of them only have a handful of views, others have a delightfully unique spin on an old classic, and none can be missed.

Beer For Breakfast

Each Friday morning, we crack open a delicious craft beer to celebrate the weekend arriving. 13 years running, and we are still discovering great new brews each week thanks to Mahoney's unparalleled passion for the hops.

The Blooper Reel

Each week we put together a showcase of some of our not so fine moments from the week where we are bumbling and stumbling all over ourselves as we try to complete simple sentences. It's a like the blooper reel at the end of a hit movie, except there's no hit movie.

Are You Smarter Than A Community College Dropout

Mahoney famously dropped out of 3 different community colleges, but that doesn't stop him from being the smartest person in the room. And he's willing to prove it in the ultimate quiz game. Every week he's challenged by Audrey or a listener to put his questionable knowledge to the test.

About the HOST

Dave Farra

Dave is the voice of reason on the show. He's married with three kids and is doing his best to stay as young as possible. Dave likes to think that he has it all together, but like most of us, he doesn't. When he's not on the air, you can find Dave hosting and producing content for AXS TV, VSiN, The World Poker Tour and Tuff-N-Uff MMA on beIN Sports Network.

About the HOST

Jason Mahoney

Mahoney is the show's wild card and over-reactor. He always speaks his mind about any subject no matter how much or how LITTLE he knows about it. His opinions are regularly as big and outlandish as his personality. Unlike Dave, Mahoney is doing his absolute best to be as old and comfortable as possible. He and his wife are Disney Cruise fanatics and his ultimate dream is moving into a retirement community before the age of 55.

About the HOST

Audrey Drake

Audrey is the the voice of compassion on the show. She brings an optimistic and positive perspective that balances out every conversation. A newlywed, Audrey loves spending quality time with her husband and Blu, her adorable Yorkie.

Radio stations have always felt like home. When we would do school projects on 'what I wanted to be when I grew up,' mine has always been radio. I have always taken an interest in the happenings behind the microphone (see photo).

SERIES: Backstage At 'Boot Camp - A Closer Look At Radio's Next Generation Of Stars

THE MOUTH, AUGUST 31ST, 2021 — In our latest installment of 'Backstage At 'Boot Camp' where we take a closer look at some of radio's up and coming personalities, our spotlight today lands on Audrey Drake (shown left) cohost of the Compass Media Syndicated Dave & Mahoney Show (below right) which originates from KXTE-FM Las Vegas. Audrey started radio right out of college in Lexington, KY. She tells us, "Regional Senior Vice President Michael Jordan and Program Director Dennis Dillon hired me on part time for: nights on WKQQ, middays on both WWTF & WLLK, and as a morning co-host for WJQQ. Yes, I wore many hats as a part timer!"

Audrey adds, "My first big break came when Market Manager Dan Kearney and Operations Manager/Program Director JB King took a leap of faith and hired me on as a midday talent for KLUC in Las Vegas. During one of our station events I bonded with Mahoney, on KXTE, over beer and music which lead to me being featured on his Beer for Breakfast Podcast along with Dave. During that time all of us realized we had great on-air chemistry and the banter was fun and easy- everything you want when working as a team!! A year later, KXTE Program Director Ross Mahoney called me into his office to let me know I had landed the third chair position for the Dave and Mahoney Morning Show!!

JL: You come from a radio family (Hubbard's Cat Thomas in Seattle is her Father). At what point did you express an interest in radio?

AD: Radio stations have always felt like home. When we would do school projects on "what I wanted to be when I grew up," mine has always been radio. I have always taken an interest in the happenings behind the microphone (see top right).

JL: Were there shows you liked listening while coming up? Any you consider mentors? So it's really funny because I can vividly remember getting my first radio in the early 90's and I know that thing for years rarely moved from Chris and DeeDee on WZYP in Huntsville, Alabama. This was before the time of ever knowing what anyone looked like on the radio, so I just imagined her being this beautiful rock star of a woman, and thanks to the internet I know that she is just that! I've never had the pleasure of meeting her, but if I did, I would tell her that she had such an influence on me as a kid.

JL: So you join the D&J show, and BAM, you're suddenly in syndication via Compass. How much more has that added to your on and off-air work-load? AD: It has been one of the coolest experiences watching this show grow. I would say that we implemented ways early to set us up for success later that it feels like a well-oiled machine at this point. What I mean by that is, we are already videoing and live streaming every day for two hours during our show on Twitch. We use that to cut promos for our show for social too which makes it far easier to ensure we have social content for all stations. Our producer, who is just the absolute best, Ian Schebel, has a routine down to where the audio is ready to go to our affiliates shortly after the show is done for the day. I'll say this again, Dave, Mahoney, and Ian are fantastic partners to be with and are true professionals that take pride in their product, as do I.

About the HOST

Ian Schebel

Ian is the show's producer and man on the street. A self-proclaimed "weirdo", Ian has an uncanny ability to talk to anyone and everyone, no matter their walk of life. Ian willingly talks to people and goes places people wouldn't dare. Ian's life experiences and views on the world are always fascinating and often bizarre. Ian wants you to know he is a proud cat dad.
