Dave Maurer, Operations Manager WSGW Saginaw MI, says, "The live Markley, Van Camp and Robbins Show is making a positive contribution to the programming of 100.5 & 790 Newsradio WSGW! The guys get on the hot topics of the day, but they also know when to take the off ramp and add some entertaining elements to the show. I'm confident they are bringing us a broader audience including younger listeners and more women."

Sarah Shellhammer, Owner WJIL Jacksonville IL, shares "So sorry for the loss of the Great Rush Limbaugh but MVR has done a great job filling that slot. They are entertaining, sharp, informed and our loyal Rush fans love them!"

The show represents perspectives from every generation. David van Camp is a millennial, Jamie Markley represents Gen X, and Scott Robbins is the Baby Boomer. The witty and downright funny conversations between the hosts about the news topics of the day make this show truly unique. The show airs live weekdays from 12noon to 3pm ET and a "Best-of" on weekends.

"Markley, van Camp and Robbins have achieved the perfect blend of chemistry and humor" said Phil Becker, Executive Vice President of Content, Alpha Media. "This is the show News Talk stations have been looking for."
